Marshall is the founder of Marshall's Bodacious BBQ. He was born and raised in Ventura, CA and is very well known as the "Entrepreneur Kid". He began learning to be successful at a very early age. At the age of sixteen he got a job working as a butcher at a local market.

This soon became his career for approximately 32 years.

During that time he created his own spice and eventually his own signature BBQ sauce.

It was through this that his catering skills developed and he has been catering for the last 29 years.

Marshall opened his own restaurant in August of 2001 and gave up his butcher career for cooking.

Prices subject to change.
